Seen, Heard and Told

By The Editor

Hugh White should carry Grenada County for three reasons: good roads built under him give us easy access to the world; most people and all home owners enjoy reduced taxes due to the homestead exemption; thru his BAWI law, Grenada established the hosiery mill which is a major factor is keeping things going here

If I can vote for him, as much as I have said of him, it looks like anyone could.

Two of our friends, Jamie Whitten, of the free state and Erle Johnston, jr., of Mr. Tom's morning paper, each fooled a good woman recently. They will find that double cussedness is better than single blessedness, if more extensive.

We must have an army quickly. The way to get it is by selective service, a nice name for "draft". Recruiting stations are not overcrowded in spite of the emergency. After all is said and done, a selective service law, if carried out without favoritism, is the fair way to get an army.

If we draft an army, train it and equip it well and quickly, we will need no army. If we wait too long to form an army, our untrained divisions, even if highly patriotic, will be as chaff before the winds when arrayed against trained armies. Having an army, we will not need it; we will need one if we do not have it. Like money in the bank; if you can get it out, you do not want it; if you cannot get it out you want it.

Most people we hear speak will accept with due patriotism, a few cents more on cigarettes, three more cents for theatre tickets, and 15 cents a pint more for licker.

Prepare or perish. Harsh words, but true. This nation has no other alternatives.

T. J. Reddick from Little Texas will not be caught in the impending cut-off, for he has paid his subscription

Hell will start popping in Britain soon. Almost all of Europe is arrayed against the British lion, always considered the acme of conservative power.

If we do not want to stand the chance of being invaded, or, as an alternative, "take low" in world affairs, we had better get busy, and stop talking and thinking of "what I want to do". Hell, the time has come to do "what I must do", not "what I want to do"

Welcome to the growing list of substantial colored subscribers the name of Levi Williams of Graysport. We have practically every substantial white man of the county on our list, and are gradually acquiring the substantial colored men.

dere mr top. i ant got no 30$$ penshun yit.

John Ben Perry, the old man, even if in many ways he acts younger than the other John Ben, dropped in and left some bull and money.

See where Sergeant James B. Lott has been transferred from Fort Sill to Fort Knox. Getting close to all that money.

Prepare or perish should be the slogan of this nation.

Much obliged to ex-secretary for a bowl of pretty flowers while I was sick at home.

It must be grand to be rich. Miss Blanche Winter has left for her Parkley, California, home to spend the summer in Monteagle, Tennessee.

If the paper this week is better than usual it is because your esteemed editor has been sorter under the weather. The old lady and Whyte Jr. mostly wrote the stuff.

Joe Neely is going to have a fine surprise in the form of a new Plymouth on July 4th, to one of his customers.

If you do not read that poem "To Hugh" on page 7, you miss a real treat. Mr. Hurd Horton wrote it.

Speaking of Hurd, nobody would blame Lizzie for quitting Hurd as Hurd takes up with such questionable political characters.

We have almost been swamped with Job printing here lately.

Jackson is working our Mr. Greenfield too hard.

Population Figures For Grenada County Given

The preliminary population figures for Grenada County, released recently, show that this county has 19,944 persons.

The 1930 census showed 16,802, while the 1920 census showed only 13,907. Thus in two decades this county has picked up about 5,500 people.

In the decade between 1930 and 1940, most of the increase was in the City of Grenada itself, though there was a small increase in the county, outside the city proper.

It will be recalled that the population of Grenada for dates given was:

1920	3,402
1930	4,349
1940	5,735

New Federal Taxes Go Into Effect On July 1st

Grenada people will dig cheerfully for the extra federal taxes for defense on and after July 1.

For example, Homer Williams, owner of both the Grenada Theatre and the Pix Theatre, indicated that tickets heretofore costing 28 cents would cost 30 cents, those costing 33 cents would cost 35 cents. Pix prices will be unchanged.

Our saloonkeepers, such as still exist, announce an advance of 15 cents a pint on licker. Cigarettes will cost one-half cent more, gasoline one-half cent more, radio taxes up ten percent.

Minnows, roaches and fishing worms unchanged.

ORDERED A DEACON

Grenada friends of the Rev. E. Lucian Malone and family will be interested to learn that the son of the family, Mr. E. Lucian Malone, Jr., was ordered deacon, on Wednesday, June 26, at 10 o'clock in the morning at St. George's Episcopal Church, Clarksdale.

The ceremonies were most impressive and attended by Bishop Wm. M. Green, and the following rectors: Rev. Butler, of Hollandale, Rev. Stevenson, Indianola, Rev. Kunney, Natchez, Rev. Gray of Greenwood, Dr. Christian, president of All Saints College, Rev. Maxted, Tunica, Rev. Liles, Grenada, Rev. Maxted, Pascagoula and Rev. E. Lucian Malone, rector of St. George Clarksdale.

In the procession were all local ministers, including the Jewish Rabbi.

These gentlemen were asked to address the congregation, during an informal period following the ordination.

After the impressive ceremony the parish of St. George was host at luncheon to all visitors.

Attending the ceremonies from Grenada were the following Episcopalians, Miss Robbie Doak, Rev. C. S. Liles, Mrs. W. J. Sherwood, Miss Bettye Sherwood, Mrs. E. R. Burkley, Mrs. Wm. Ames and Mrs. T. H. Weir.

MR. W. C. CHAPMAN

Funeral services were held in Water Valley on Tuesday, June 25, 1940, for Mr. W. C. Chapman, brother of Mr. S. S. Chapman, owner of Piggly-Wiggly Store in Grenada.

The deceased was game and fish commissioner for twenty-two counties and the last rites were attended by law enforcing officers of this service from all over the state. We extend our sympathy to the family.

White Way invites you to come by their office and become acquainted with Mrs. Roberts.

American Legion Elects Officers for Next Year

Recently, Post No. 35 elected its new officers to serve for the ensueing year. Officers elected were: J. M. Talbert, commander; Ernest McNulty, vice commander; Jack Sanderson, adjutant; L. O. Burris, service commander; Sam Barranco, sergeant at arms; and T. B. Thrower, chaplain.

Mr. Talbert has always taken a great interest in Legion work and, at this critical crisis in the national affairs, in which the Legion may form the vanguard of Americanism, and possibly the home guard, he rededicated this post to the ideals which are the foundation of the American Legion. Mr. Talbert is serving this city as street commissioner.

Mr. Sanderson is a long-time teller at Grenada Bank, and is beginning his second term as adjutant.

Mr. McNulty is one of the efficient salesmen of Grenada Grocery Co. and in the second position in this post, may be called upon to do yeoman duty ere his term expires.

L. O. Burris, reelected as service officer, perhaps devotes more thought and attention to Legion affairs than any man in Grenada. His familiarity with government rules and regulations and with the procedures necessary in bringing the ex-soldier and the Veteran's Administration together makes him and his services (free to ex-soldiers) invaluable.

Sam Barranco, a naturalized citizen, but a participant in World War No. 1, having been named sergeant at arms is physically able to do his duties.

T. B. Thrower, reelected chaplain, is pastor of the Methodist Church, and in spite of what we often hint about him in this newspaper, is a good man.

LEGION AUXILIARY CONTEST AT THE BARWIN HOTEL

In a contest sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary Margaret Jean Mitchell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arch Mitchell was awarded the diamond ring for being the cutest baby girl. Sam Caruthers, young son of Dr. and Mrs. S. B. Caruthers received the silver cup for the cutest boy entered in this contest. Doreen Jordan, beautiful young daughter o Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jordan won the prize in the bathing beauty contest. Mrs. Jack Sanderson announced a good crowd attended.

REVELL'S AUCTION SALE

Revell's twice daily auction sales, where anyone can call for and bid upon anything in the stock, is attracting large crowds and, we hope, putting a lot of money into Revell's cash register.

Remember, the city council now meets on the second Monday of each month, the next meeting scheduled for July 8.

DEAD MOUSE MAY CAUSE SUIT

Allegedly finding a dead mouse in a half-consumed bottle of beer which she had bought in a local cafe, a lady is preparing to sue the manufacturer for $2,500.00.

Allegedly she became ill when she discovered the corpse of the diminitive rodent in her drink.

Allegedly, four lawyers appeared on the scene within five minutes after the discovery of the misplaced mouse.

16TH ANNIVERSARY SALE

Our Beale Street neighbors, Horton and Horton, are offering many substantial bargains at their 16th Anniversary Sale, beginning right away. See their large circular which is being placed in every home.

We had just well get ready for some form of selective service. Apparently, Uncle Sam will never get an army by the volunteer system, as much as we like to dwell upon Bryan's famous saying about a million men springing to arms overnight.

Prepare or Perish

We often note results of certain polls by Dr. Gallup. Most of those polls seek to determine whether the American people want to do so and so. A recent one determined that about 68 per cent of us wan't to train our youth for military duties.

Always we Americans have been so free that we did nothing that a majority did not approve. If a majority wanted no army to speak of, we just had a sorry army. And so it has gone—just being free.

The time has now come when we have to prepare or perish, and that's all there is to it. With mighty nations falling beore the German blitzkrieg like grain before a scythe, we can no longer arm or not arm as we please, but we must arm or be disarmed, we must prepare or perish.

It is no longer a question of whether we want our youth trained, but it is now a question how quickly we can train them and how many we can train, and how quickly we can provide them with modern weapons, and how quickly we can organize industries to provide modern equipment for war.

Hitler and his empire are potential, if not real enemies. His empire is geared to war preparations. The youths of that empire all have received training, military and technical. Every person in that empire is able to do something worth while, either at the front or behind the lines, to help win the victory. The last nine months, when nation after nation was quickly conquered, have proven the efficiency of a nation geared to one objective—that of successful war.

Poland did not prepare and Poland perished. Norway did not prepare and Norway perished. Denmark, Belguim and Holland did not prepare. All perished.

France, guided more by "what we want to do" than by "what we must do", only partially prepared. Look at France today!! A proud empire a month ago, a wreck today!!

Only a miracle can save the British Empire, the greatest in history. English people, like our own, relied too much on "what we want to do" and failed to prepare adequately. With the entire German air force preparing to pound the proud island, the British now are frantically seeking to get ready. If the British Empire falls, it will not fall on account of lack of men, lack of money or lack of raw materials—for it has plenty of all of them—but it will perish because it did not prepare properly.

Nor does America lack men, money or materials. America does lack the proper coordination of these elements vital to victory.

We must prepare or, like the ten vanquished nations of Europe, perish.

Contract Let for New Baptist Church Building

This week, the building committee of the First Baptist Church let the contract for the building of their new church house on "McLean Point" to Perry Construction Company, of Philadelphia, which submitted the low bid of approximately $30,000.

Work will start at once and is scheduled to require 4 or 5 months.

The 50-year old church house on the corner of Main and Second Streets was destroyed by fire in December, 1939. Since that time, the congregation has worshiped in the high school auditorium.

Rev. Allen E. Wiley is pastor of this church.

County Cotton Acreage Now Being Checked

Work has begun on the annual check up of cotton acreage under the direction of County Agent A. L. Ford.

The work started several days ago and will probably continue through August. As to yet it can't be determined whether there has been any overplanting or not. The office employees will start checking the field figures with the allotment sheets this week.

At present there are thirteen field checkers. These could not if the program are: Donald Ross, Frank Thompson, Hamilton Graves, Fred Fiddly Shaw, Paul Phillips, W. H. Clark, W. N. Hayward, Boog ed Jones, J. D. Carver, Wade Rice, George Williams and Roy Chamberlain.

HOPE WE DO NOT GET IN JAIL FOR THIS

Some man, woman or child will receive a brand new Plymouth from Joe Neely on July 4th.

Just which man, woman or child is so to be blessed we know not. The gods who determine the identity of the fortunate one are very reticent about the matter.

However, a bird was heard to tell another bird that, he guessed, the gods would smile on someone who had bought a car from Joe before June 30th. This Jirdl may not have known what he was talking of.

Birds know a lot of things though

MR. LLOYD FORD

Mr. Lloyd Ford, of Waterford, Miss., age 32, passed away at the Oxford Hospital Monday evening, June 24, 1940. He was ill only a short time and his death came as a great shock to his family.

Upon being notified of her brother's critical illness, Mrs. R. L. Bingham, a sister of the deceased, accompanied by her husband went to Oxford Monday.

Funeral services were held at the family cemetery near Ford's Wells on Tuesday, Mesdames M. J. Waldrop and Vernon Williams, of Grenada, attended the last rites.

FORMER GRENADIAN DIES

Friends in Grenada of Mr. and Mrs. Scrop, (former residents of Grenada) were saddened when they heard of the death of Mrs. Scyrop, which occurred in a hospital in Greenville Saturday. Burial was in Goodman on Monday.

Friends from Grenada to attend the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Rice Pressgrove and Mr. and Mrs. Leon Geeslin.

Legion Sponsors "Fifth Column Meeting

Grenada Post No. 35 American Legion members sponsored an open forum at the Community House on Monday evening, named Supt. John Rundle as chairman. This meeting was attended by a representative group of citizens, the house being comfortably filled.

Prof. Rundle opened the meeting with a splendid talk on American citizenship. He stressed the fact that each American possessed the priceless heritage of freedom and spoke freely of the various American organizations, such as the Scouts, American Legion and American Legion Auxiliary as well as fraternal societies dedicated to defend America against any and all foes.

Prof. Rundle introduced Mr. Bob Morrow, State Adjutant from Jackson, who spoke at length concerning the danger of fifth columnists in America. He stressed the importance of educating returning pioneers concerning the subversion of un-Americanism. He urged the people to cooperate with the American Legion in tracing down any suspected fifth columnist activities. Mr. Morrow stated that the National American Legion is responsible for the establishment of the Dies committee and spoke of the good resulting from this committee's investigation.

He stated that we have in America 200 (two hundred) organizations working for the downfall of America. At the end of his talk, he took questions from the forum.

Mr. Tom Penn and Dr. R. A. Clapp discussed the problem of immature blood pools in Grenada. Dr. Clapton stressing a remedy along this line. "His brother's keeper" but insisted he want to care for his American brother in Grenada first.

Major R. D. Sharp, assured the audience that the law enforcement officers had investigated many strangers and would continue this investigation diligently as the weeks pass.

Mr. H. C. Wilson spoke of the unresponsive attitude of the general run of people to our beautiful American flag.

Mr. L. B. Green asked some very interesting questions of Mr. Morrow, concerning Fifth Columnists activities in Mississippi. The affidavit answered these questions very satisfactorily, making the thinking men of the most pro-American attitude, all of a sudden.

Mr. DeKalb, a gentleman accompanying Mr. Morrow on this trip to Grenada, proved very interesting in a short talk. He exhibited numerous papers, magazines and tracts which are a few of the thousands now in the Post Office that are published by communistic propaganda. He stated that no other country on earth would be lax a policy as does this country with this type of unwanted publicity. He reminded those present that each individual has renegades. The difference is so heavy as to be our responsibility at the present time. The audience was asked if they were in favor of future meetings and every one present raised their hand in approval.

Mr. Rundle asked all to stand and be dismissed.

Announcement concerning future meetings will be made through the newspapers of Grenada.

Every citizen should attend these meetings.

FIRST COTTON BLOSSOM

The first cotton bloom of the summer was brought to our office Tuesday, June 25, by Mrs. J. J. Ingram, from her farm on Tippo.

The field from which it was picked is worked by Mr. Aaron Hudson, better known as the mayor of Mosquito Lake.

Mrs. Ingram stated there were cotton blooms in the field on Sunday, June 23.

P. K. NEISWANGER DEAD

News has reached Grenada of the death last Sunday morning, June 16, 1940 of Mr. P. K. Neiswanger, and his burial at Saratoga, California. He will be remembered here as the gentleman who married Miss Anna Nicholson.

MT. NEBO (?

There being no news from Mt. Nebo this week leads us to believe that our correspondent there, G. S. Burke, fainted and fell out last week when he saw that the GCW was supporting Hugh White.

My Column

Whyte Whitaker Jr.

John Keeton, Jr., came home from a tour of the delta last week, as usual he had several "tall tales" concerning his activities with the girls of that region.

***

The Grandview Theatre, located in the negro Grenada "Harlem", had its World Premier the other Saturday night. It was attended by many of our substantial Moorish citizens.

***

Miss Charlotte Seizel, comely employee of Tom Grant seems to be making quite a "stir" among the males of the city. She is a former resident of Sunflower, Miss., and this fact alone seems to have stirred quite a bit of interest in the minds of several. She is cute, laying all jokes aside, and has a personality par excellent.

***

C. W. Thompson and George Danceler gave the fair sex a break Sunday night Vide ut supra, it might be vice versa.

***

"North of the Moon" and "South of the Border." Regions of degradation both.

***

Francis Hill, Jr., after a super human effort finally got a date with a most beautiful young lady last Saturday night. He narrowly averted having her taken away from him by one whom Hill terms an "imposter." This isn't the first time this has occurred, and it seems that Hill should have learned by now to keep his girls away from the "imposter" so as to avoid bitterness in the future.

***

It has been suggested by several of Grenada's "wolves" that the Cuff Hill read be renamed "Rhiny Boulevard". We don't know whether this is pertaining to the Rhine river in Germany or not, if it is it should be termed as German propaganda and the change not be allowed.

***

It is alleged that Beat Four in keeping with Beat One's recent drive on traffic violators, has also started a campaign against traffic violators within her bounds. Latest report have it that numerous violators have been caught and tried under the big tree at Bennett's Store. This is a very commendable effort on the part of the Beat Four officers and will no doubt lead to safer driving in that section.

***

Willie Semmes has been recently seen in South Grenada quite a few times. Reasons unknown except to him and a "her".

***

Romance on the rocks—Little Chick Lockett and Mary Ann Scott. Romance in full giving—Edith Penn and Little Chick.

***

Political prophets, Willie Semmes and Francis Hill, Jr., who seldom fail to predict the out-come of an election, make the following statemene concerning the Bilbo White race: "Hugh White stands about as much chance of beating Bilbo as Mohammed in Vatican City."

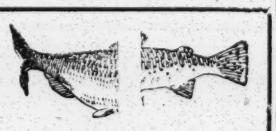
WINS DIAMOND RING

Miss Margaret Jean Mitchell

It is rumored that Mary Elizabeth Horton has a most colorful rival for the affection of Benton Keeton.

***

Rumor hath it that Gen. Walter Mullin, former Nicaraguan chieftain, has gone into the car business. It is said that he will take anything with a radiator on it, and an oil spot under it, if for no other reason, other than to get it off of the road. Thus Dunnaway Grows.



Fish Tales

Banjo Sykes and Bob Vandiver recently tried their luck which was not much to brag about.

Junius Townes and Brother Purdy went to Hampton Lake last week. Junius tied the fish insecurely, and lost them, and had to buy some fish from a negro woman. Purdy raised hell with him.

Red Briscoe reported fair luck from Yonkapin Sunday.

Several local fisherman, including Groundhog Weir, sideharrowed Flowers Lake in Tunica County Sunday.

One amateur fisherman was bragging about what a big trout he caught, seven or eight pounds. Asked to show the fish, he pulled out a big grinnel, locally known as a "cypress trout".

This wet weather has stopped a good deal of the actual fishing, but it has given a big impetus to fish lies.

If Sunday is a pretty day, we suggest that there be a consolidated men's Bible class, for there will be many big gaps in the three regular classes.

Selective service, harshly called the draft, is just around the corner.

Sour Dough of Alaska

Now it is midnight with the perfume of the tundras, forgetmenots, violets, wild roses, rirs, poppies, cowslips, purple bleeding hearts and corn flowers, all the wild flowerst hat grow and bloom above the Artic Circle.

Beautiful wild grasses, exquisite mooses, different kinds of daisies and snow flowers, cotton-tufted sedge. The murmuring of the birds as they go to sleep, even thought the sun is shining, what a sunset; rose tints fading into purple bloom, the narrow-lined clouds which a few moments ago lay like soft vapory streaks along the horizon are lighted up with a golden splendor that the eye can hardly endure. The sky above glows every moment more varied and more beautiful as the golden lines are mixed with gorgeous red and purple. To look at the glorious sky, then to see this magnificent picture reflected in the clear waters is a picture never to be described and never to be forgotten. My heart swells and my eyes fill as I think of the immeasurable majesty of Nature, and the unspeakable goodness of God who has spread an enjoyment so pure, so peaceful and so intense before His people and all his creature. This is the midnight sun.

The Esquimo and the Indians celebrate the longest day of the year as well as the shortest day with chanting ceremonial dances and tribe meetings.

December and June are the two months that all affairs are straightened up in. Big Jim, an Esquimo chief, told me that six generations ago, at midnight, there was a pledge between the tribes in the Kobuk that they would cease warfare and settle their differences with talking it over. During the First World War these natives could not understand why white men with superior minds could not settle their troubles without killing one another.

POEM OF 1837

This appropriate poem, set to music was sung as a sermon hymn at All Saints Episcopal Church last Sunday morning, preceding a splendid sermon delivered by the rector, Rev. C. S. Llies:

Lord, while for all mankind we pray,
Of every clime and coast,
O hear us for our native land,
The land we love the most.

O guard our shores from every foe;
With peace, our borders bless;
With prosperous times our cities crown
Our fields with plenteousness.

Unite us in the sacred love
Of knowledge, truth and Thee
And let our hills and valleys shout
The songs of liberty.

Here may religion, pure and mild,
Smile on our Sabbath hours.
And piety and virtue bless
The home of us and ours.

Lord of the nations, to Thee,
Our country we commend;
Be Thou her refuge and her trust,
Her everlasting friend. Amen.

Seen, Heard and Told By The Editor

Subscriber S. P. Daigre and several others said that Bilbo was going to beat the hell out of Me and Hugh. Well, that will not be unprecedented.

All the chicken eaters in the family enjoyed the fine fat hens that Bro. J. E. Inman brought in and paid for his subscription. They were really fat and fine.

The King of the Snuff Dippers, Hon. Roscoe E. Fowler of Sweatman, graced this office with a short, if honored call Saturday.

Even Bill Lott told me to tell Hugh that he had better save his money, as he would get old some day and need it. Me and Hugh have plenty of money. Me and Hugh and Henry Ford have, on an average, several million dollars.

Bidwell Adams Fowler and Me are still betting on Mike. I have not consulted Bidwell on Hugh's chances.

That certainly is a powerful preacher who preaches about noon Sunday on WGRM. He gives sin and the devil plenty of hell.

ANDREWS-CHAPIUS

At high noon Sunday, June 23, 1940, in the Hamilton Memorial room of the First Presbyterian Church, Grenada, Miss Charline Chapius, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Chapius, became the bride of Mr. John Steve Andrews of Sardis.

Rev. C. A. Pharr performed the ceremony in the presence of a small group composed of relatives and friends.

Attendants were Miss Elizabeth Dogan and Mr. Joe Neely.

The bride was lovely in a blue redingote frock with white accessories. Her shoulder corsage was of white carnations.

Miss Dogan chose an attractive white frock with white accessories. Her corsage was of pink gladioli.

Mrs. Andrews is a member of the social set of Grenada and a graduate of Grenada High School class of '40.

The groom, a graduate of Sardis high school is a young man of sterling worth and holds a responsible position in his home town.

Help Keep Them At Home

Twenty six thousand dollars, the WPA's part of the cost of the proposed armory in Grenada, has been allocated by the President to that project. All that is needed now is for the city and county, jointly, to put up their part to insure the erection here of an up-to-date armory building, which can be useful for other purposes too. Grenada is sadly in need of a place for very large assemblies.

Before international conditions became so serious, and before America's stake in international affairs was realized to be so great and pressing, it was debatable whether a local outlay would be expedient. Since the beginning of the talk about this project, the necessity for preparedness and the necessity for every individual and every community taking his or its part in this pressing national program, the picture has changed. It is not what we want to do, but what we have to do, that bedevils our people now. Not whether, but how quickly.

Everyone is bound to know that it is but a matter of months, if not weeks, before the youth of our land will begin military training. "Draft" is a harsh word, but if that is necessary, as it appears now, our boys will be drafted into service. These recruits, we assume, will receive their training as near home as facilities will permit. Certainly, if facilities are near, the boys will not be sent far off. Therefore, it appears to us that this community should play ball with the WPA and the War Department by cooperating in the construction of the proposed armory for two reasons, viz: First, from a desire to do a part in the national preparedness program by aiding the War Department in its giant program; and second, from a desire to keep the boys of this community at or near home as long as possible. The latter reason should appeal to all parents.

So, let's all get busy and play ball.

The Old? Veteran Speaks

For us old veterans, will it be peace and pensions, or war and pencils? That is the veteran's problem. It is his special reason for wanting the United States to remain at peace.

Veterans are reaching the limits of their employable age. Many are jobless and have little hope for future employment. Their only solution to their problems is pensions. Pensions cost money.

The tremendous cost of war would put off pensions indefinitely. It would bring an end to the present benefits some veterans now receive.

In the event of war, doctors, medicine and beds would be drafted. The hospitals would be emptied to make room for new casualties.

The tempo of war speeds up industry beyond its peacetime rate of production with more machines, not with more men; and the assembly lines are already too fast for many veterans. He would benefit little by the wartime jobs.

The problems of the veteran cannot be solved by war.

A Sign of Confidence

Some sources of information stress the point that subjects of the British Empire number six hundred million people. England has not called on her colonies reserve army as yet, thereby assuring the world that she (England) is capable of handling the situation on the British Isles. The voice of Lord Chamberlain seems to re-echo these words, "Does the madman Hitler think that he improves his stand by enlargement of the circle which he must defend".

History is repeating itself in Europe with all its attending horror and grief. Fifteen hundred-odd years ago in 410 A. D. Alaric the Goth sacked Rome. The whole Italian peninsula shook under the feet of the savage invaders; the Roman order collapsed; Europe was delivered into the hands of the barbarians. At this momentous time St. Augustine, a bishop and writer wrote his book, "City of God". In it he wrote of times like ours, a time of gathering darkness, a time in which the Christian virtues of peace and intelligence were trampled underfoot by demon apostles of force. Today, 1940, Americans watch with fascinated horror, with confused thoughts, and perhaps more or less frightened to the war as waged by Hitler of Germany.

Again Alaric is at the gates, not of the Eternal City, but at the very portals of the citadel of civilization itself. Hitler says his reign (Reich) will last one thousand years. Is this reign to be as the darkness of which St. Augustine wrote? Surely Hitler and his kind may plunge the world into that very darkness.

Yes, we are arming ourselves (how could we do otherwise) against this darkness. As you and I prepare to serve in any way that may be demanded of us, let us keep one thing in mind: That we remember always and forever why we are arming; that we remember that, tho we may use force to combat force, we must never allow our own hearts to surrender to the weapons our own hands must wield. To remember that we are in conflict to preserve that reverence for the individual man, woman and child upon which our western culture was founded. So let us now, at once throw ourselves into the grim task of war preparations, knowing that our purpose is to keep alive and extend a way of life which, with all its imperfections, holds out a vital hope for men and women instead of condemning them to the corpse-like security of slavery.

In the end, God willing, we will have no more devastated cities. We will not have refugees fleeing from their mother country. We will have a future so secure that no one shall flee from tyrants. —Mrs. WWW

The most bloodthirsty fellows, we observe, are those who are either too old to go to war or those who have no sons to go. That group is hell-bent on war.

Sympathy Is Not Enough

Recently the Grenada County Chapter of the American Red Cross began a campaign for funds for war refugees as part of the National Red Cross drive for war relief.

The goal or quota for Grenada County has been set at $1000.

A large group of public-minded men and women throughout the county have undertaken the work of contacting every person in Grenada County who wants to give.

If you are thankful you are an American, if you feel any sense of brotherhood of man and of responsibility to suffering humanity, give generously to this splendid organization.

Give in proportion to your gratitude for security and freedom and peace. Our thankfulness for peace must be translated into tangible assistance. We can do this through the American Red Cross. Already millions of American dollars have purchased mercy supplies that have been so urgently needed in Finland, Poland and other war-stricken nations. This greater need that grows hourly in France must be met with greater response. This response must be prompt and generous.

Give what you can and give it quickly. Your contribution, large or small, whatever you can afford, is vital in answering the cry of distress that comes to us from over the seas.

The Way of Life

This thing of living is queer, as seen by one who knows:

There are many cross currents and conflicting philosophies.

Here are some of them:

When a man is little the big girls kiss him.
When he is big the little girls kiss him.
If he is poor, he is a bad manager.
If he is rich, he is dishonest.
If he needs credit, he can't get it.
If he is prosperous, everyone wants to do him a favor.
If he is in politics, it is for graft.
If he is not interested in politics, he isn't a good citizen.
If he doesn't give to charity, he is a stingy "cuss."
If he does give to charity, it's for show.
If he is active in the church, he's a hypocrite.
If he takes no interest in the church, he is a hardened sinner.
If he gives affection, he is a soft specimen.
If he cares for no one, he is cold blooded.
If he dies young, there was a great future for him.
If he lives to an old age, he missed his calling.
If he save money, he's a tight-wad.
If he spends it, he's a loafer and a spendthrift.
If he gets money, he's a grafter.
If he doesn't he's a bum.

So, what's the use?

Just go along and do the best you can and let your conscience be your guide.

Ten Little Motorists

A good Minister mails us the following lines which we think is good enough to pass on to our readers:

* * * * *

TEN Little Motorists, driving in a line,
One tried to pass the rest
Then there were NINE.

NINE Little Motorists, sadly I relate,
One passed a traffic light
Then there were EIGHT.

EIGHT Little Motorists, young and not so deft,
One tried to show his skill
And SEVEN were left.

SEVEN Little Motorists, touring in the sticks,
One failed to dim his lights
Then there were SIX.

SIX Little Motorists, very much alive,
One did not see a train
Then there were FIVE.
FIVE Little Motorists, speed to the shore,
One skidded in the rain
Then there were FOUR.

FOUR Little Motorists coming from a tea,
One faced about to chat
Then there were THREE.

THREE Little Motorists, this is sad but true,
One slumbered from fatigue
Then there were TWO

TWO Little Motorists, racing just for fun
One passed upon a crest
Then there was ONE.

ONE Little Motorist, though it's seldom done,
Lit a match to gauge his tank
Now there are NONE

Young People, Register

Young man and young woman, if you have become 21 since tax paying time this year, or if you will be 21 before November 5, 1940, AND WILL REGISTER before July 5, you can vote in the primaries this August. No payment of poll tax is necessary. Just go to the Circuit Clerk's office BEFORE July 5 and request that you be registered.

People otherwise qualified should also register before July 5th. People over 60 who have not already registered and people who have paid their taxes but have not registered, should also register.

This appeal is particularly directed to young men and young women whose 21st birthday is between February 1, and November 5, 1940. All these will get a free vote, if they register before July 5.

Me and Mike.

Which Shall It Be?

Shall we have peace and prosperity, or shall we have war and risk disaster? These are the real questions we face when we decide the answers to Europe's propaganda.

We can have peace. Adequate military forces and a great navy can guarantee us against foreign aggression. We can have prosperity if we devote ourselves to the solution of domestic problems.

We will have war if we continue to meddle in the European mess. We know that is true for all of us remember 1917. Shall we follow the old footprints that lead to war?

The results of the last war should make us cautious. The sod on the graves of our dead is still fresh and the hospitals are still filled with our wounded. The curses of our ungrateful allies still ring in our ears, when we remind them of our loans to them. The unemployed are still an unsolved problem of the depression caused by the war. The cost of that war is still written in red ink on the Treasury's books.

In spite of the insults hurled at us by our allies that we were tardy, stingy and timid, we were lucky to have entered the war so late. Our enemy collapsed before our wealth and manpower had become seriously impaired. Had we our present public debt, inflation would surely have come.

If we enter this war under the present handicaps these imagined disasters may soon become realities. Then we might find ourselves living under a dictatorship, our freedom and democracy only dreams, and taxed to starvation to buy munitions of war. The end might be chaos and revolution.

Knowing this risk, most veterans are committed to a policy of peace for America.

Mc and Hugh are no more funny bedfellows than Paul and Theo.

Grow Food

(Vema Neely, Home Demonstration Agent)

Mississippi farm men and women face one of the greatest crises in the history of Southern agriculture. Europe the South's biggest cotton market, is aflame with war. A war of indescribable horror is sweeping ruthlessly over an entire continent, destroying the population and wealth of nations and deeply affecting our own country.

The first great need that faces the farmer is to make his farm as nearly self sustaining as possible by growing and conserving all food and feed possible. Let us farm women consider the home gardens and poultry for our side of this situation, for it may be unwise to depend on cotton alone for money with which to buy food and feed. Production of vegetables and poultry for the farm family has always been a wise policy to follow. Now such a program seems to be an absolute necessity.

There is still time to plant more vegetable seeds, and conserve fruits, vegetables and meats. Let us be wise and grow a good home garden for every family. You can and should see to it that every family near you has a good garden. One that should produce all vegetables for summer use and plenty to can for winter use. Plan a good fall garden too.

Conserve all fruits and vegetables possible. Grow your meat and shortening at home. Plenty of milk and butter for every family, and plenty of poultry. Can a calf or cow.

I urge you to plan as never before, a live at home program by producing on the farm all food possible for home use. Regardless of what the future holds for us we all know no farmer has ever made a mistake by producing as far as possible his food at home. We will be glad to give you any assistance possible, from the home demonstration agent's office, and if we can be of help in any way, please call on us.

MISSISSIPPI MAN SAYS HE FEELS LIKE A MILLION DOLLARS AFTER TAKING NASH'S C. & L. TONIC

Many of our Southern people suffer from the symptoms of Malaria, occasional constipation and associated biliousness. Either of these ailments may cause that lazy, draggy, no account feeling. If you suffer from the symptoms of Malaria or if you are constipated now and then, we recommend Nash's C & L Malaria Chill Tonic and Laxative as a relief from these ailments.

Not an untried or unknown medicine—not a cure-all—Nash's C & L Tonic is probably the largest selling medicine in the Malaria sections of our Southland. Thousands have received satisfaction from taking this Southern preparation.

Mr. Nash says, "Try Nash's C & L Tonic for one week and if not satisfied your druggist is authorized to return your money." He safs, "I don't want one penny if my medicine does not satisfy you."

DUCK HILL NEWS

(Mrs. M. S. Walker)

Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Taylor spent Monday in Winona at the home of Mrs. Elma Patterson. The occasion being a joint birthday dinner for Mr. Taylor and his nephew, Mr. Patterson.

Mr. B. M. Trapp, who is attending summer school at Okoloma, was at home for the week-end.

Little Grace Jean Gillespie, of Charleston, spent several days this week with her cousins, Dorothy Ann and Lillian Aldridge.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Tyler were over from Parchman for the week-end with their mother, Mrs. W. E. Tyler.

Mr. C. H. Campbell did not get to spend his two weeks in Texas for when he got there his other Texas son, Harvey Campbell and family, were ready for their visit to Mississippi, so back he came with them after just a short stay, but says he will get even with them another time.

Mrs. C. R. Binder, of Memphis, visited her cousin, Mrs. M. S. Walker, Thursday. Other visitors from Memphis were Mrs. R. C. Cox and Mrs. D. A. Hendren.

Miss Elma Louise Norwood has gone to Glendora for a three weeks' visit to relatives.

The F. A. Gillespie family, of Aberdeen, spent several days with Dr. G. Y. Gillespie and Mrs. J. E. Aldridge and family.

Lewis Wynn, of Greenville, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Wynn, who formally resided here, spent several days with friends here during the week. Lewis has been about quite a bit since leaving here and proved himself a radio artist in his line, having been to New York and on the Gene Austin and Rudy Vallee program.

A kindly gentleman, who likes to do things worth while gave us a subscription for the Grenada County Weekly to go to Miss Agnes Halley, at Sanatorium. We are sure this will give her much pleasure while she is spending her time at this lovely health resort, and giving her pleasures like this will help make her well and strong again.

Mrs. Honer Burford, of Marks, and Mrs. Herbert McCuiston, of Clarksdale, with her two lovely little daughters, visited their aunts, Miss Beasie Curry and Mrs. Lizzie Curry Sunday. They had been with their father, Mr. E. S. Hill to Calhoun City for a visit to Miss Sara Hill.

Those attending the Gillespie-Wilson wedding at Jackson from here were Dr. G. Y. Gillespie and daughter, Mrs. J. E. Aldridge and Mrs. W. E. Tyler.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam McClellan, Jr., of Winona, spent Sunday with Mrs. McClellan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Kirk.

Misses Barneta Morris and Thelma Hendrix, of Tie Plant, visited Mrs. M. S. Walker during the week.

Checking up on people that are really doing things we find C. W. Norwood, F. H. A. contractor has built every government house in Montgomery county. Just completed some buildings at Sumner and this week beginning a big job at Starkville. This man who believes and lives by the guiding principle of "honesty is the best policy" has never had a single job turned down and he has been building in Grenada, Calhoun and Tallahatchie as well as Montgomery counties. Besides the job at Starkville he is also beginning work at Yazoo City this week. Among the man visitors that have recently inspected the houses he has built, besides many government officials, was the Editor of the Progressive Farmer. Mr. Norwood is a quiet unassuming gentleman, does not believe in "getting something for nothing" but earns what he makes. The country and our government need more Charley Norwoods.

Rev. and Mrs. H. N. McKibben returned Monday after spending several days visiting friends in the delta. The occasion of this visit being a happy wedding ceremony in which Rev. McKibben joined two splendid young people in wedlock. He being their former pastor and close friend for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stovall, of Memphis, with their children, have returned after spending the week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Holmes.

Col. Lloyd T. Binford passed thru town a few days ago and left us another box of some splendid books for the library. He is always doing something to make somebody happy, and this does make us all happy.

What W. B. Hoffa is to Grenada and Bill Trewalla is to Winona, C. A. Wilkins is to Duck Hill, except when Mr. Lloyd Binford is in town and he is that.

The Methodist Presbyterian meeting begins Sunday in the Presbyterian Church. Have not learned just who will do the preaching but a young Millsaps College student will lead the singing. Everyone invited to come.

A bunch of people moved in here a few days ago to begin digging for liquid gold. Plenty of that stuff under this ground and we expect to be using our own oil in our cooking rages before many months have passed.

Rev. W. L. Philley, Episcopal rector from Hot Springs, South Dakota, who was chaplain at the Veterans' Hospital there, is here visiting his relatives, the A. W. Moore family.

Mrs. Eva Curry Kimbrough, of Morgan City, spent several days during the week with her sister, Miss Bessie Curry.

Mrs. J. M. Conger, after several weeks spent with her cousin, Miss Curry, has returned to her home at North Carrollton.

Mr. Bertram Goss accompanied the following State College Friday, returning after the concert: Misses Lola Mae and Mattie Bell Patridge, Louise Raper, Mattie Helen Sledge and Barbara Kingsland.

The World Wags Wearily, Woefully On

Poland, Denmark, Norway, Belgium, Holland, Luxembourg and now France, defeated. The mighty British Empire bears the entire load. As long as England controls the sea, Hitler can not win.

Look for ghastly headlines in the next few days and weeks.

Thanks to subscriber Mickie Clark, who very often sends us copies of Chicago newspapers which we enjoy very much.

Poor old Mitchell is still at Parchman.

To Hugh

Now Mr. Whit can it be so
You've gone and quit our Theodore?
And in the dark and silent night,
You've crawled in bed with Mister White.
Why if my memory serves me well
This is the Hugh you oft' gave hell,
You said his doors, while opened wide
But, rarely was he there inside.
But rather often was he seen
Bedecking some sweet Beauty Queeen.
Or by some chance, with wand in hand.
Was leading some Convention band.
Or, maybe, down along the Coast
Responding to some foolish toast
And in your paper, you told us all
Hugh spent three years in Freshman Hall.
And there's the Mitchell matter, too
This you blamed on your man Hugh.
Now, Mr. Whit, t'was you who said
It wasn't Hugh the pavements laid
That makes it smooth for car and bike
You claimed these roads were laid by Mike.
The whole thing now seems so screwy
When I recall you called him Hooey
Instead of Honorable Mister White
Now tell me Whit, am I not right.
You ought to know that this won't do
To have this man so close to you
That all your friends will wonder why
You let yourself tell such a lie.
It seems to me you ought to know
Your Hooey White can't beat Bilbo
Why, he's the man that ate the cheese
And rode in power with grace and ease
If this done on such a diet
It behooves you, Whit, to stay right quiet
For, watch our Bill, he'll burn the woods
You know, old Boy, he's got the goods.
Go get your pipe and can of snuff
Of your stinging bull, we've had enough
T'will be the same old tale again,
You're going to lose, we're going to win

Bob Vandiver stopped selling Volunteer products long enough to come by, or rather send by, and renew his allegiance to what Ed Underwood calls the Grenada County Gut.

Ben Brown's building, being prepared for Bob Anderson, will be a humdinger when completed.

The members of the Ferdinand class met Monday night, but had to call in a substitute for their usual scorer.

We have added a scribe from that great, yet ill-defined territory known as "little Texas". Our correspondent there is Mrs. Chester Lott, and we see that she has a grasp on the situation in that vicinity. There is a lot of Lotts, as we frequently say.

See where Hugh has got Jack Hancock to go around with him in his tour of the state. Jack is a good one.

Nobody killed at Holcomb this week end. Several badly shot, on corn tickker.

The fellow who maintains the Y and M. V. R. R. tracks for and from Dubard is one of our most prompt renewers. We thank you, Brother J. P. Gordon for your continued support.

Fred Griffin certainly knows the help in high. He keeps the prettiest cleanest place on Beale Street of any in the entire city.

MT. PISGAH NEWS

The Homecoming Day at Mt. Pisgah was a great success Sunday. There was a large crowd and plenty of lunch which was served under the shade trees.

The revival at Mt. Pisgah will begin the fourth Sunday in July.

Miss Helen Bankston of West, Miss., spent Saturday night with Ernestein and Kathleen Sellers.

FORMER GRENADIAN MAKES GOOD AT S.I.N. UNIVERSITY

Miss Roy Stallings, formerly of Grenada, now a student at Southern Illinois Normal University, received the following write-up in the Nashville Banner:

"Miss Roy Stallings of McMinnville is the author of a research paper entitled "Drama In Southern Illinois from 1857 to 1900" which will appear in the June issue of the Illinois State Historical Journal. A history major, Miss Stallings wrote the paper of Southern Illinois Drama in connection with a history seminar. In tracing sources for information Miss Stallings spent much time going through old records and news-papers in libraries throughout the state. Hers is the first research paper to have been written on the subject.

"A senior at the Southern Illinois Normal University, Miss Stallings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stallings of McMinnville, has been outstanding in campus activities. During her last three years in college she has been voted by the Little Theater as one of the two most valuable women players. She has appeared in leading roles in the plays, The Night of January 16, Our Town, The Yellow Jacket, Room Service, Sun-up, and Petrified Forest.

"In addition to her work in the Little Theater, Miss Stallings is a member of the college newspaper and yearbook staffs; of Mu Tau Pi honorary journalistic fraternity; the American Student Union; and Sphinx, activities honorary, of which she is president."

BUSINESS OPEN NEXT WEDNESDAY

Rather than close their stores next Wednesday afternoon, July 3, it seems to be the concensus of opinion that stores will remain open Wednesday all day and close all day Thursday, July 4th.

STORK DORMANT

The stork, fearing that his charges might become soldiers, and singing the song, "I Didn't Raise My Boy To Be A Soldier" took out this week for parts unknown.

Remember, most stores are closed Wednesday afternoons, and all stores are closed all day Sunday. Do your buying at other times. Give the clerks time to fish a day and a half.

FIRST BIRTHDAY CAKE

The two children pictured above are the grandchildren of Dr. and Mrs. E. B. Coats. They are Tommie, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Coats, of New Orleans and Patricia is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Barclay Coats.

MISS PARKS FETED

Entertaining approximately thirty-five guests, Miss Gene Marders honored Miss Sara Parks, house guest of Miss Eleanor Lickfold at a charmingly arranged garden party at her home on Union Street Wednesday at 5 o'clock.

Greeting the guests were Misses Sue Vandiver and Susan Proby. The hostess with the following young ladies were in the receiving line, Miss Lickfold with Miss Parks, Jane Quiggens of Memphis, Ruth Geeslin of Payne, Betty Cooper, of Indianopolis, and Miss McEachen with Miss Annie Anderson.

Assisting with serving were Misses Helen Horton and Frances Neelly. Miss Lucy Webb Sharp served punch.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Glamblin, of Starkville, visited in the home of their sister, Mrs. Jack Sanderson on Sunday.

Seen on Beale Street: one of the Collins boys towing a lawn mower while riding a bicycle.

Johnnie Constantine, Jackson's main printer and pressman, has done a good deal of celebrating here lately, his 23rd birthday on the 14th and his 1st wedding anniversary on the 17th. And still he stayed sober.

Seen, Heard and Told By The Editor

Every stranger is not a spy. To confess the truth, spies do not pop off, beat their hotel bills and otherwise invite attention to themselves. They are as unobstrusive and as inconspicuous as possible. They try to be just ordinary folks. Remember that the next time you see a "spy", or a 5th Columnist.

There is mighty little a spy could find out in Grenada anyhow. He is not interested in family skeletons and eternal triangles, otherwise he might find a wealth of material here.

Aint they sweet.

Me and Hooey.

Mr. John Highgate, of Memphis, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Gene Wright, and her family, and his nephews, John and Keene Huffington today. A flourishing church of over 500 members began in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Highgate, and, if they have no greater monument, that church will be great enough.

See where Brother Vox Pop Calloway got a piece in the Commercial Appeal. At last Grenada got notice, even if some think it gave Grenada rather dubious publicity.

Mrs. Eugene Davis, who recently moved to Jackson had her GCW follow her so that she can keep up with the notices and news, the bull and bologna of Grenada.

REGISTER AT ONCE

Boys and girls, "coming 21" before November 5, may have a free vote in the August primaries, if they register at the Circuit Clerk's office before July 5.

Just one week more to attend to this important matter.

Sister Velma Neely's article concerning the necessity, yea the imperativeness of planting food and more food, was of such timely importance that we made an editorial of it.

Our esteemed governor, Hon. Paul B. Johnson, is scheduled to return to his office today. Job and pardon-seekers should line up and present their claims for recognition.

We appreciate the nice job of circulars that our Beal Street neighbors Horton & Horton entrusted to us.

Squire M. O. Gray, custodian of the scales of Justice (though his wife keeps an eye on Squire lest he gets too familiar with the blind goddess) has been added to the mailing list, and the Mt. Nebo bundle, already large, gets larger.

These "Hitler & Co." gds were stolen from the Collins Commercial. I do not know where Arrington stole them.

I am almost tempted to get sick enough to go to the hospital as Little Texas, my favorite nurse, sent word she would hold my hand, if I became a patient.

Parodoxially, if this country gets ready, it will not have to fight; if it does not, it will.

Our Memphis bundle was lightened and our Chicago bundle increased recently when we received instructions to change Mrs. Dovie Butler from the Bluff City to the Windy City.
